

2026 EDITORIAL THREADS

austin home

A note on threads: These narrative directions will define one major feature in each issue, and guide the surrounding conversation in print and digital content for each season. However, we encourage a diversity of projects to be submitted across our platforms at any time.

Spring

The Business of Design

Close: 1/8

Materials Due: 1/22 On

Stands: 2/24

Austin is not only pushing the design industry forward through built work, but in new business models that make construction, high design, and innovation possible. This issue focuses on the client experiences, entrepreneurs, and gathering spaces that are shaping Austin into a global center of design.

Special Issue

Home & Design Awards

Close: 2/12

Materials Due: 2/26

On Stands: 3/31

Highlighting the best of the best architects, interior designers, builders, landscape designers -- and beyond.

Summer

The Health & Wellness Issue

Close: 4/9

Materials Due: 4/23

On Stands: 5/26

We're going beyond cold plunges and infrared. This issue dives into the myriad ways design enhances health and wellness, both in our homes and around town.

Fall

AIA Austin Homes Tour Preview

Close: 7/9

Materials Due: 7/23

On Stands: 8/25

We continue our cherished tradition of celebrating the homes on the AIA Austin Homes Tour. We also zoom out to focus on Austin's legacy of design legends, and a Designer Challenge.

Winter

The International Edit Issue

Close: 10/1

Materials Due: 10/15

On Stands: 11/17

One of the many things that makes Austin such a vibrant city is the influence by our friends from other places around the world. From aesthetics, to products, to simply a fresh perspective, globally inspired design brings new dimensions to our spaces.